UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
PLATTEVILLE
DEPARTMENT OF HUMANITIES

Creative Writing FESTIVAL

Thursday, May 2 — 4:30-7 p.m.

Harry and Laura Nohr Art Gallery, Ullsvik Hall
UW-Platteville campus

Featured Writer: TOM WILLIAMS

Tom Williams is the author of two books of fiction: a novella, The Mimic's Own Voice (Main Street Rag Publishing Company) and the forthcoming novel, Don't Start Me Talkin' (Curbside Splendor). His short fiction, reviews, and essays have appeared in such journals as Barrelhouse, Florida Review, Indiana Review, and The Collagist. He is the chair of English at Morehead State University, and lives in Kentucky with his wife and son.

Photo credit: Kevin Jordan

Student winners of the Thomas Hickey Creative Writing Awards will also read their pieces. Refreshments will be available.

To request disability accommodations, please contact Stormy Stipe at stipes@uwplatt.edu.